NORTHERN PLAINS RESOURCE COUNCIL BENEFIT CAPS WEEK OF EVENTS IN MISSOULA

The 11th annual Northern Plains Resource Council Missoula Benefit will start at 6:30 p.m. Friday, March 1, at Loyola Sacred Heart Gymnasium, 32 Edith, Missoula.

The benefit features a spaghetti dinner and an auction of original artwork, gift certificates, and collectables from eastern Montana. Rep. Harry Fritz will again be the auctioneer. A dance follows the auction.

The benefit is sponsored by the Northern Plains Resource Council. Proceeds will support the works of the council, a private non-profit Montana organization whose purpose is to preserve rural lifestyles.

Advance tickets are $7 and available at Eli's, Freddy's Feed and Read, the Rishiri, Budget Tapes and Records, and the UC Bookstore.

The UM Student Action Center will co-sponsor an open forum with Missoula legislators Thursday, Feb. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in UM Science Complex 103.

Other pre-benefit events during the week of Feb. 25 include a film, lectures, panel discussions and poetry readings.

Information about the benefit and related events is available from Kim Barta at the UM Student Action Center, 243-5897.
